

ALBERT OF MONACO VISITING THE EXHIBITION

On Monday May 25th, SAS the Prince Albert II of Monaco honoured the exhibition "Egypt's Sunken Treasures" with a private visit. The Prince arrived at Caselle airport by helicopter together with some officers of Monaco. At the Reggia Fabrizio Del Noce and Alberto Vanelli, President and Director of the Consorzio di Valorizzazione Culturale "La Venaria Reale", welcomed him in the Galleria Grande. Afterwards the Prince visited the exhibition hosted in the Scuderie Juarriane (Juarra's Stables) with the curator Franck Goddio. On the way back, in the chapel of Sant'Uberto he met Salvatore Ippolito and Stefano Grillo, Deputy Major and Councillor to the Environment of the City Venaria Reale, which presented him with a volume and a drawing of the city.

The Prince went back in the afternoon, after a lunch at the restaurant "Cascina di Corte".

Photos in the concerning section of this web site

Venaria Reale, May 26th 2009